House of Representatives

FRIDAY, MAY 21, 2021

The House met at 9 a.m. and was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. BROWN).

DESIGNATION OF THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Speaker:

WASHINGTON, DC,
May 21, 2021.

I hereby appoint the Honorable ANTHONY G. BROWN to act as Speaker pro tempore on this day.

NANCY PELOSI,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Margaret Grun Kibben, offered the following prayer:

Mighty God, as conflict rages across the globe, we lift our prayers for those countries at arms. Our hearts hurt to hear of the horrific violence, and our souls ache for the victims of such hate.

Our plea this day is that of the psalmist who prayed that all people would turn to You in prayer and praise. May this spur them toward peace. May it compel each not just to cease fire, but to put down their weapons and find a way toward resolving all grievances.

O God, then would the nations be glad. In You would they once again find reason to sing for joy.

As You look out over the world, You judge us with Your inimitable fairness; would that all the ends of the Earth heed Your guidance.

In bringing our prayers for reconciliation and justice before You, we ask that the nations may know Your blessing. In You may the peoples of the world know Your peace.

Lord be gracious to us and once again make Your face to shine upon us.

In the strength of Your name we pray.

Amen.

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to say thank you to all the men and women of the House floor who execute their duties flawlessly and anonymously so Members of Congress can dispatch the important business of the people we are privileged to represent effectively and efficiently.

We would not be able to discharge the duties vested in us by the Constitution were it not for the reporters, floor clerks, journal clerks, reading clerks, bill clerks, and Parliamentary staff who daily provide indispensable customer service to the House of Representatives.

Their job just got a little harder because I am sad to report that Barry Pump, one of the Clerks of Debate, has been appointed parliamentarian of the House Committee on Homeland Security and will be relinquishing his floor staff position after 7 years of faithful and flawless service, and a total of 9 years of dedicated service as an employee of the Clerk of the House.

Ask anyone about Barry Pump and you will get story after story attesting to his intelligence, knowledge of floor procedure, commitment to accurate and truthful report, and relentless attention to detail.

This House is a better place because of extraordinary floor staff personnel like Barry Pump.

Madam Speaker, we wish Barry well in his new position as parliamentarian for the Committee on Homeland Security, and as a senior member of the committee, I am happy to learn that is the Homeland Security Committee to which Barry will take his considerable skills and talents.

IN MEMORY OF TOM COWIE

HON. ANN M. KUSTER

OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 21, 2021

Ms. KUSTER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor and remember the life of Tom Cowie, a dedicated father and a passionate member of the greater Plymouth community. In Depth NH, a local New Hampshire newspaper, published an obituary of my friend Tom that I include in the RECORD:

CENTER HARBOR, NH.—Thomas William Cowie, 68, longtime Plymouth attorney and community volunteer died March 22, 2021, at home following a 10-week bout with metastatic lung cancer.

He leaves his wife of 32 years, Paula Tracy, and their daughter, Eliza Cowie of Boulder Colorado, two brothers, Paul Cowie and Peter Cowie, and their families in Truckee, California, and Fayetteville, N.Y. respectively.

Born October 10, 1952, to Barbara Ann (Olhoff) Cowie and Walter T. Cowie in Syracuse, N.Y., he lived in Barre Vt., Fayetteville, NY, and spent summers on Big Moose Lake in the Adirondacks before graduating from Fayetteville-Manlius High School in New York in 1971.

At Ohio Wesleyan University (OWU), where he received his bachelor's degree in political science in 1975, Tom played lacrosse. He became the team's captain in his senior year and was a leading scorer for all four years. His senior team went on to play in the NCAA playoffs. Tom was chosen by the United States International Lacrosse Association to play in the national North-South All-Star Lacrosse Game at Cornell University in 1975. It featured the best senior lacrosse players in the nation. And although not an official college statistic, Tom was also known for having the best long, blonde ponytail sticking out of his helmet.

His joy was being outside, whether it was waterskiing, skiing, paddling or driving friends and family for a cruise around Squam Lake. To relax, Tom would often play the piano. He could sight-read any song and particularly enjoyed playing Christmas music, sung at annual gatherings with family friends.

His favorite place in the world was the Adirondacks at his childhood summer home "Sunset" a classic Earl Covey designed camp on Big Moose Lake's Crag Point where he and his brothers spent endless summer days and participated in the lake association's annual waterski shows.

After college, he spent several years in Truckee, California, enjoying skiing and hiking, and learned the art of stonemasonry along the shores of Lake Tahoe. He participated in the Sierra-Tahoe Pro Ski Circuit in 1977 and 1978 and thru-hiked the 186-mile Tahoe-Yosemite Trail during his time there.

Tom enjoyed all forms of sport, including tennis, softball, and golf. He tried parachute jumping and learned the sport of curling in Plymouth last year. After moving to the Plymouth area in the early 1980s to join his cousin, Bill Cowie, in sales, he took graduate courses at Plymouth State University.

After being urged to consider the practice of law, he enrolled at the former Franklin Pierce Law Center in Concord, now UNH School of Law, and received his Juris Doctor of law degree in 1986. He then entered the general practice of law with Ross V. Deachman in Plymouth in 1987, later partnering to become the current firm of Deachman & Cowie, P.A.

For Tom, the practice of law was always about helping others solve their problems and being part of a small-town community. His law practice was what he described as "country law" and it involved many charitable efforts. At the state level, Tom volunteered his legal services in the New Hampshire Bar Association Pro Bono Program, offering free legal advice to those in need and served on the New Hampshire Bar Association Board of Governors as a Grafton County Governor and then as a Governor-at-Large from 1991 to 1996.

He also served on the Board of Directors of Spare Memorial Hospital in Plymouth.

In 1987, at Cannon Mountain in Franconia, NH, he met Paula Tracy as a single in the T-bar lift line. They went on to marry in 1988 and together enjoyed many years of skiing with their daughter, Eliza.

A long-time resident of Rumney N.H., Tom served on numerous boards, including 12 years on the Rumney School Board, beginning in 1997. In addition to serving on a number of social service agencies concerned with child welfare in the Pemi-Baker area, Tom worked to foster a love of local nature, including years serving on the Quincy Bog Board of Directors. He served for almost a decade as a member of the Board of Trustees at the Squam Lakes Natural Sciences Center in Holderness and at the time of his death, he was the Board's secretary.

His love of lacrosse never left him and that love enriched others in the Plymouth area because of his efforts to establish high school lacrosse teams at Plymouth Regional High School (PRHS). He volunteered to coach lacrosse, first at Plymouth State University as an assistant coach of the men's varsity team in the mid-1980s, then for boys in the independent White Mountain Wolves league. With a group of others, he campaigned and advocated for the creation of a high school lacrosse program at PRHS. While it took more than a few tries to get the votes at the school district meeting, the program was established in 2008.

Tom was asked to coach the first PRHS women's team with Maureen Wentzell and by the second year of their coaching, the team won the Division III state championship in 2011. He continued to play lacrosse in the summers with fellow OWU alumni at the Summit Lacrosse tournaments in Lake Placid, N.Y. with his last tournament participation in 2004.

Tom had a strong faith in a higher power and he remained thankful, loving, humorous, forgiving, and forever hopeful till the end. His family wishes to thank the teams at Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center in Lebanon and Lakes Region VNA in Meredith. Their exceptional care and kindness allowed him to pass away at home with grace and comfort.

Mr. SUOZZI. Madam Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Rabbi Ian S. Jacknis who, after 28 years is retiring as Rabbi of the South Huntington Jewish Center. His dedicated and compassionate tenure as Rabbi has touched the lives of many in his congregation through the years. service to his congregation and the Melville community. We hereby recognize and acknowledge his tenure as Rabbi by sharing some of his biography and contributions.

Rabbi Jacknis brought his love of Judaism and unique blend of warmth and spirituality to the South Huntington Jewish Center in the summer of 1993, and quickly became known, both inside the synagogue and throughout the surrounding communities, as being welcoming, responsive, insightful and compassionate. During his tenure he has fostered a renewed feeling of unity and enthusiasm in the congregation, as well as a marked increase in membership. Shabbat services, especially, are infused with his special spirit, and he has brought a variety of new initiatives to SHJC.

Rabbi Jacknis is highly respected by his congregants and his peers. He is a Past President of the Rabbinical Assembly of Nassau-Suffolk as well as the Suffolk Council of Jewish Organizations. The Rabbi also serves as the Jewish Chaplain to the Melville Fire Department.

Rabbi Jacknis attended the undergraduate Joint Program of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America and Columbia University, receiving two bachelor's degrees in 1977. He later attended the Seminary's Rabbinical School, taking classes at the University of Judaism (now the American Jewish University) in Los Angeles, at Neve Schechter in Jerusalem and at the Seminary's main campus in Manhattan. In May of 1983 he received both his Master's Degree and Rabbinic Ordination. Recently, he was awarded an Honorary Doctorate by the Jewish Theological Seminary.

Rabbi Jacknis is married to his wonderful wife, Suri Jacknis, who serves as Director of Educator Networks at The Jewish Education Project. She is a progressive leader in the Jewish world, and SHJC is fortunate to have had the two of them as leaders of their community.

Together, Suri and Rabbi have three children, a son Noam (married to Candace), a daughter Yael, (married to Jacob Davidson) and another daughter Nava (married to Natanel Fuchs). Rabbi and Suri are the proud grandparents of Ethan, Braydon and Liat.

Mr. CASTRO of Texas. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of Lisa Starr

Rosenstein, 53, who was tragically killed in a hit-and-run accident while jogging. I want to express my condolences on behalf of the people of San Antonio to the Starr family.
