Great is Your faithfulness, eternal God of all creation. As the years go by, while our attentions stay absorbed on the here and now, You remain sovereign over all our days.

We cannot even fathom the immensity of what You do from one year to the next, let alone what You have done from the beginning of time to its end.

Much has transpired, both good and ill, in this year 2021. We have lived and thrived in Your grace, and by Your great mercy we have not been consumed.

As we reflect on all that has taken place in these Chambers, in our country, and in our own lives, grant us hearts of overflowing gratitude for the outpouring of the blessings You have granted us, and produce a harvest of righteousness in the discipline You have conferred on us.

Redeem the memories we lay before You and grant Your favor on the hopes we hold for our future. Kindle in our hearts the deep desire for the eternity You lay before us. To You whose unfailing love never ends, and in the pray.

Amen.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

COMMUNICATIONS STANDARDS COMMISSION MINORITY REPORT AND LETTER

HON. KAT CAMMACK

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES Thursday, December 30, 2021

Mrs. CAMMACK. Madam Speaker, on May 24, 2021, the Chair of the House Communications Standards Commission conducted Poll 117-1: Based on the Complaint submitted to the Commission on April 22, 2021, by Representative EARL L. "BUDDY" CARTER against Representative ZOE LOFGREN and Representative LOFGREN's Answer to the Complaint, submitted to the Commission on May 6, 2021, this Commission was asked to decide if a violation

Poll 117-1 was conducted prematurely per the Commission rules of procedures, absent of proper investigation, and therefore invalid. The Republican Members were unable to offer a vote to a poll that was invalid.

of the House of Representatives Communications Standards Manual occurred.

MAY 24, 2021.

Hon. MARY GAY SCANLON,

Chairwoman, Communication Standards Commission, Longworth House Office Building, Washington, DC.

CHAIRWOMAN SCANLON: On May 21, you sent a poll regarding the Communication Standards violation complaint brought against Representative Zoe Lofgren ("Complaint") to the Members of the Communications Standards Commission for consideration. As you have conceded, this poll is invalid because it is procedurally unripe and violates Commission Rules.

Commission Rules are quite clear. Upon receipt of a valid complaint, the Commission has thirty days to adjudicate the complaint and issue its written decision. Rule 9. The Commission's adjudication process begins with Rule 6, which requires the Commission's Chair and Ranking Member to "review the respondent's answer to the complaint" in order to agree to dismiss the complaint or jointly or independently conclude that the complaint "presents a reasonable justification to warrant further review". Following a "decision by either the Chair and/or the Ranking Member that further review of the complaint is warranted to determine if a violation has occurred, the respondent shall be given notice of further review." Rule 7 (emphases added). Following "further review" the Commission may "determine[] there is substantial reason to believe that a violation has occurred", which may lead to a hearing. Rule 8 Following a vote on "substantial reason to believe" and/or a hearing, a majority of the Commission may decide to dismiss the complaint (Rule 10), or the Chair and Ranking Member may determine a violation has occurred. Rule 11. Only if the Complaint is not dismissed and the Chair and Ranking Member are unable to reach a determination, shall the full Commission vote on such a determination. Rule 13.

The complaint was received by the Commission on April 22, and your first availability to meet with Ranking Member Cammack to discuss the complaint was on May 19. This Rule 6 meeting on May 19 was an opportunity to determine if a reasonable justification for further review of the complaint was warranted. Rule 6. At the conclusion of the meeting and at your request, the final Rule 6 determination was delayed in order to permit further reflection. This delay now appears to have been a tactic to avoid fulfilling the Commission's responsibility to protect federal taxpayer dollars.

Disappointingly, you sent this poll on May 21, three days before the May 24th statutory deadline for the Commission to issue its written decision. The Commission did not need to be in this position, with no time to complete its work.

Your poll instructs the full Membership of the Commission to determine whether the alleged violations occurred. Setting aside the fact that the Commission has engaged in no investigation of the Complaint, this poll is clearly procedurally invalid and in contravention of Commission Rules, as you agree. You cite Rule 13 as your authority to put this question before the entire Commission, yet no action under Rule 13 is ripe. As explained above, and as you now appear to agree, procedure here is quite clear. The full Commission may vote on dismissal only once either the Chair or Ranking Member concludes under Rule 6 that "the complaint presents a reasonable justification to wan-ant further review" (Rule 6), the Commission notifies the respondent of such further review (Rule 7), and the Commission considers whether "there is substantial reason to believe that a violation has occurred[.]" Rule 8. Pursuant to your suggestion for delay, neither the Chair nor the Banking Member had issued a Rule 6 conclusion when you issued the Rule 13 poll on May 21. Further, the full Commission may vote on final determination (Rule 13) only if the Commission does not dismiss the complaint under Rule 8 and the Chair and Ranking Member are unable to reach a "determin[ation] that a violation has occurred[.]" Rule 11. On May 24, you agreed to send the notice of further review required by Rule 7 to Representative Lofgren. Last Congress, Democrats and Republicans agreed in a bipartisan manner to update and revise our procedural rules. Let us now conduct ourselves according to these bipartisan rules and execute our responsibilities as required.

After it became apparent that your requested delay at the Rule 6 meeting was merely a delay tactic, Ranking Member Cammack informed you of her timely conclusion that the Complaint presents a reasonable justification to wan-ant further review. Under pressure on this issue, you agreed to notify Representative Lofgren that the Commission will review further the Complaint, as required by Rule 7, conceding that this poll is procedurally invalid and in contravention of Commission Rules. Given the serious nature of the violations outlined in the Complaint and the now-short timeframe for the Commission to complete its work, Ranking Member Cammack also suggested an extension of 30 days for the Commission to issue its written decision. It is imperative that the Commission have sufficient time to review the Complaint, and if necessary, to request additional information before the Chair and Ranking Member or the Commission make a determination with respect to the alleged violations.

Further, and despite its now-admitted. fatal procedural defect, your poll requests that the Commission determine without any investigation whether the alleged violations occurred. Because of your various dilatory tactics that led us to this point, there is now no way for the Commission to complete its work without an extension. There is not even enough time for the Commission to request additional information from the complainant or respondent to inform its work. See Rule 7. Today is the last day for the Commission to issue a written decision, affording the parties no opportunity to respond. There is simply not enough time for the Commission to determine thoughtfully whether the alleged violations occurred.

Since the Commission's inception in 1974. this bipartisan Commission has historically conducted a fair and bipartisan review of all valid complaints received. It is our hope that this tradition will continue this Congress. As such, the full Commission must be afforded the ability to perform its statutory responsibility to review this valid complaint and, at the appropriate time, to vote on its disposition. As Ranking Member Cammack has suggested, an extension of time for the Commission to complete its review of the Complaint is necessary and appropriate.

As you have conceded, the distributed poll is procedurally unripe and violates Commission Rules. Therefore, we decline to vote on this invalid poll and encourage the Chair to permit the Commission to complete its work in accordance with Commission Rules We stand ready to work with you through this process

Sincerely.

KAT CAMMACK, Rankina Member. Communications Standards Commission. BRYAN STEIL.

Member. Communications Standards Commission. BOB LATTA,

Member. Communications Standards Commission.

CELEBRATING THE 80TH ANNIVER-SARY OF OUR LADY OF PEACE HOSPICE & HOME HEALTH CARE

HON. BETTY McCOLLUM

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, December 30, 2021

Ms. McCOLLUM. Madam Speaker, I rise today in recognition of the staff, volunteers, patients, and families of Our Lady of Peace Home on its 80th anniversary of service to the Saint Paul community. A non-profit community hospice and home health care organization offering care at no cost to those in need, Our Lady of Peace has been a beacon of light caring for more than 25,000 people at the end-oflife and their families over the past eight decades.

The Our Lady of Peace legacy in Saint Paul began in 1941 when nine nuns from the Dominican Sisters of Hawthorne traveled to Minnesota from New York to open the Our Lady of Good Counsel Home. This was the sixth home established by the nuns, and their focus then was on serving terminally ill cancer patients without means to pay or care for themselves. This service was started by Rose

• This "bullet" symbol identifies statements or insertions which are not spoken by a Member of the Senate on the floor. Matter set in this typeface indicates words inserted or appended, rather than spoken, by a Member of the House on the floor. Hawthorne Lathrop who nursed cancer patients in New York City in the late 1800s before founding the Dominican Sisters of Hawthorne. The hospice home in Saint Paul was the furthest west out of all six homes and took shape during a globally perilous time in history as World War II was waging in Europe. Nevertheless, the grand opening for Our Lady of Good Counsel's home in Saint Paul was set, and they opened their doors on December 7, 1941—a day that would live in infamy for the attack on Pearl Harbor that would launch the United States into the war.

From that day onward, the sisters and other volunteers at the home have provided compassionate care for terminally ill patients while bringing comfort and support to their loved ones. Though the modern practice of hospice care was not introduced until the late 1960's, the Dominican Sisters of Hawthorne had been quietly providing hospice care for decades. Throughout those first few decades of service, Our Lady of Good Counsel depended entirely on donations of goods, money, time, and service, and they never accepted payment from patients, families, insurance companies or the government. Today they still rely heavily on volunteers and donations to cover any costs not covered by Medicare payments in order to ensure a free service to patients and families. In 1980 they were able to replace the old Tri-State Telephone Company building in which they were founded with a brand-new building. The new building included a chapel, central courtyard with gardens and a fountain, and two floors for patient rooms; expanding their capacity to the twenty-one beds that remain today.

The turn of the century marked a period of expansion and transition for the organization. In the early 2000's they introduced an official hospice program which allowed them to provide end-of-life care outside of their residential facility and serve people in their homes throughout the entire 7-county metro area in Minnesota. They also established the Home Health Care program which provides in-home help with daily living, post-operative care and other therapies. They are also affiliated with the Highland Block Nurse Program which is funded in part by Title III of the Older Americans Act and provides a variety of services for older adults and their caregivers in the Highland Park neighborhood in St. Paul. In 2009 the operation of the home was transitioned to the St. Paul-based Franciscan Health Community, and two years later the home was officially renamed "Our Lady of Peace."

Led by President & CEO Joe Stanislav, Our Lady of Peace is served today by four Franciscan Clarist nuns and employs over 130 workers including chaplains, social workers, nurses and a full-time physician. And despite their ties to the church as a Catholic non-profit organization they serve patients from all religious or non-religious backgrounds and walks of life. For 80 years they have upheld their mission to gently comfort and care for those most in need near the end of their lives, wherever they call home, regardless of means. Madam Speaker, please join me in recognizing Our Lady of Peace's benevolent and dedicated staff and volunteers—as well as the patients and families they serve-on their 80th anniversary of service.

HONORING THE LIFE OF MÓNICA CRIADO-CUEVAS

HON. JIM COSTA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, December 30, 2021

Mr. COSTA. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of Mónica Criado-Cuevas. Mónica passed away on December 13, 2021. She was an inspiring woman, mother, mentor, wife, and cultural figure.

Mónica was born on February 5, 1967 in Fresno, California, where she was raised. Mónica was brought up from humble beginnings. Her parents worked as seasonal farmworkers, and she herself took on the same responsibility to support her family. This was no small feat for Mónica. While working to become the first individual to ever graduate in her family, she worked long hours picking oranges, peaches, and grapes. Mónica persevered and went on to earn her bachelor's degree at Fresno State and her master's degree from National University.

Mónica worked for State Center Community College District for 23 years and became the Dean of Student Services and Counseling at Fresno City College, where she will be remembered for her care, kindness and commitment to the students and faculty. Mónica was a beacon of light for many students that came from similar circumstances as herself. Her ability to recognize and understand the challenges that presented themselves in those students' lives allowed her to help them overcome their obstacles more effectively. She was adored by her students. In 2019, Mónica was inducted into the Muro de Honor (Wall of Honor) for accomplished district alumni.

Mónica's excellence extended far beyond her profession. She was a prominent cultural figure in the Latino community. Mónica served as president of the Latino Educational Issues Roundtable and was secretary of the Hispanic Serving Institution Consortium of the San Joaquin Valley. Her heritage was captured vividly in her love for Folkloric dance, which she developed a deep passion for at a very early age. Mónica would put audiences in awe while perfectly executing elaborate traditional dances at charitable events and gatherings.

Mónica will be remembered for her profound impact on the lives of those she came across. It was her kindness, care, and charisma that allowed her to touch the hearts of everyone around her. We send out our thoughts and prayers to her family. She is survived by her mother, Alicia Criado; her sister Leticia Montes; children Michael, Matthew, and Miranda; and two granddaughters.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring the life of Mónica Cuevas. Her service and contributions to the city of Fresno will be missed dearly. I join her family and friends in celebrating Mónica's life.

HONORING 50 YEARS OF ALLIGATOR RECORDS

HON. JANICE D. SCHAKOWSKY

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, December 30, 2021

Ms. SCHAKOWSKY. Madam Speaker, I rise today along with my colleagues, Congressman CHUY GARCÍA, Congressman CASTEN, Congressman KRISHNAMOORTHI, Congressman KINZINGER, Congresswoman ROBIN KELLY, Congressman SCHNEIDER, Congresswoman BUSTOS, Congressman RUSH, Congresswoman MARIE NEWMAN, Congressman BILL FOSTER, Congresswoman UNDERWOOD, and Congressman QUIGLEY, to honor the 50th anniversary of Alligator Records.

Chicago blues music has its roots deep in the Mississippi Delta and was carried north in the Great Migration of 1916 through 1970 by the millions of African Americans who migrated to northern industrial cities in search of good jobs and to escape from Jim Crow racism.

Chicago's blues community nurtured thousands of musicians and dozens of record labels, and the city became the world capital of blues and eventually gave birth to Alligator

Records and the rich, soulful Chicago blues heritage and culture that we know and love today.

With nothing but his love of the blues and entrepreneurial spirit, Bruce Iglauer founded Alligator Records in 1971 at the age of 23, using all his savings to record his favorite Chicago blues band, Hound Dog Taylor and the HouseRockers, although the band had no national presence, no booking agent, no manager, no publicist, and played almost entirely in tiny neighborhood clubs on the South and West Sides of Chicago.

Beginning with this one album, Iglauer built a blues record label that is now celebrating its 50th birthday.

Today, Alligator Records is the largest independent blues label in the world, with over 350 albums and an artist roster that ranges in age from 22 to 78, and has won three Grammy Awards and an astonishing 48 nominations, as well as over 150 Blues Music Awards and over 115 Living Blues Awards.

Alligator Records has been a driving force in support of Chicago blues and blues music worldwide, and a glowing example of our country's rich tradition of musical and entrepreneurial spirit. Now, my colleagues in the House of Representatives and I honor Alligator Records on 50 years of business and celebrates the American cultural legacy of Chicago blues music.

Together we urge the United States Government to take all necessary steps to preserve and advance the art form of Chicago blues music; recommit itself to ensuring that recording labels like Alligator Records and their artists receive fair protection under the copyright laws of the United States for their contributions to culture in the United States; and reaffirm the status of Chicago blues as a unique national treasure.
